"If the submarine, with a subsurface speed of only 12 knots and carrying only a few hundreds of pounds of explosives, with a range of only a few hundred yards, nearly won the last war, what will a vehicle having a speed of 200 knots and carrying torpedoes and bombs having 2,000 to 4,000 pounds of explosives do?"

Moffett indorsed the pending $616,250,000 Vinson construction bill, but suggested it be changed to require the building of eight instead of one of the newest type ships, not yet tried out by any power—fast cruisers armed with six-inch guns and carrying 24 airplanes each.

THE HAWAIIAN PROBE.

Continued revelations of almost Church inbelievable vice conditions in Hawaii make it apparent that the probe to be undertaken by the United States must be thorough nough to leave no doubt as to here the blame lies.

Latest reports of conditions in and around Honolulu paint a picture of openly flaunted vice and ture of openly flaunted vice and crime.

The Ala Moana district is described as consisting mainly of structures housing bootleggers and women of easy virtue. Fifteen of the city's thoroughfares are listed as "crime streets," lined with brothels of every description.

Disorderly houses, occupied by young girls of a half dozen different races, are declared to exist in every section of the city. Many of these are lavishly furnished and so bold in their operation as to keep handsome limousines "on call" for their patrons. Assignation houses of the commissions have already gone a long way and a basis of communion has virtually been established. While it is proposed that each church will retain its independence, there will nevertheless be a common authority established to whom all the branches will owe a sort of spiritual allegiance. This authority will be vested in the archbishop of the old Catholic church, who resides at Utrecht in Holland. He is the head of a small denomination, which conforms in every respect to the doctrines and usages of the Roman Catholic church except one; to-wir, it does not recognize the one; to-wir, it does not read the recognized the recognized th their patrons. Such underworld control of a territory under the protection of the United States cannot be tolerated and no time should be lost in bringing about a swift and thorough housecleaning in Hawaii.

Unquestionably present conditions have been brought about by the heterogeneous riff-raff of many races who have come to Honolulu within the past decade. The city has become a miniature melting pot into which have poured the lower elements of the United States, Janan. China and the south sea islands

The broth from this pot has prought discredit to the splendid white citieznship of the city and to the natives as well. It is therefore doubly the duty of the United States government to see to it that vicious elements are put where they can do no further harm.

Mr. Williams said that after each such exposition, the city came back "stronger than ever." Attention was directed to the impetus the coming bi-centennial celebration in 1933, when Georgian throughout the world will be invited to return to Georgia for f visit, would give to such an exposition. "Atlanta has grown so fast and has accomplished so much that many of our own people have failed to keep step with her growth even in their imagination and this exposition would afford the opportunity needed to advertise both her accomplishments and her advantages." he said.

Mr. Williams discussed the agricultural situation in Georgia. He said Professor S. H. "Regardless of this fact the sun is shining brighter today for Georgia's tenant farmers than ever before in all history. There is at present a combination of forces and factors at work in Georgia that makes it easier than at any time in the past for Georgia tenant farmers to cease to be tenants and become farm owners.

Atlanta, Mr. Williams asserted, today stands as "the brightest spot in America."

In this the bill differs from the senate measure, which places the farm loan commissioner on the board instead of the agriculture secretary.

Another Stengall amendment approved makes the obligations of the corporation lawful investments in order that they may be accepted for all fiduciary, trust and public funds.

In getting the bill to conference, parliamentary technicalities may cause some difficulty, but in view of the overwhelming vote in both chambers, its sponsors are not worried. The technical obstacle lies in the fact that the senate and house each approved a separate bill to bring about the same result. The parliamentarians say the house measure must now go back to the senate for consideration there before the conferees can be appointed. The new addition, Mr. Alexander said, is a distinct contribution to the electric refrigeration industry. Court of Appeals of Ga.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—(P)—Railways of the United States asked their organized workers today to accept a 10 per cent reduction in pay for a year and the laborers in returned asked for relief of their unemployed.

Negotiations on the two subjects started at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and in three and a half hours the proposals were laid on the conference table. Labor, in addition, made a formal presentation of its case.

The proposition submitted on behalf of the railroads by the committee of nine presidents was this:

"Ten per cent to be deducted from each pay check for a period of one year. Basic rates to remain as at present. This arrangement to terminate automatically 12 months after the plan becomes effective, unless extended by mutual agreement."

The program of the brotherhoods and unions was explained by D. B. Robertson, head of the labor delegation. After the meeting adjourned, Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio, and leader of the presidents group, said it was a "clear and constructive program presented in a statesmanlike manner."

If labor gives up voluntarily approximately $250,000,000 in one year, Robertson said, it was only reasonable the men should ask that at least some of that money go to the aid of their own ranks.

"If this policy be pursued," he warned, "its economic and financial results will be so disastrous that present conditions will seem like an abounding prosperity."

Speaking at the annual dinner of the League of Nations Association, Dr. Butler's address climaxed a day of activity for delegates to the convention which opened yesterday.

His plea for closer co-operation with other nations was echoed by George W. Wickersham, of New York, president of the association. Mr. Wickersham, presiding at the dinner, criticized the aloofness of the United States toward the League and declared this country is in honor bound to adhere both to the League and the World Court.

'Old Master' Stopped by Young Foe in Second Round.

By Alan Gould,

Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(P)—Tommy Loughran, a shadow of the one-time "Old Master" of the light-heavy-weights, reached the end of the fistic trail tonight, a knockout victim of the slugging. sensational young Steve Hamas, a 23-year-old fighter not long out of Penn State College.

Madison Square Garden.

A crowd of 9,000 roaring fans saw Loughran meet his finish at the hands of a boy he would have given a boxing lesson in his prime. The Philadelphian had nothing but courage in his attempt to repel the onslaught of the lad who made a name for himself as an all-around college athletic star.

After back-pedalling desperately throughout the first round in his attempt to escape the rush of Hamas. Loughran ran into a volley of heavy blows to the head early in the second round. He plunged into the ropes, half draped over the lower strand for a count of eight from the first barrage. Coming up groggy, he was met by a fusillade and again hit the canvas for the nine count. This time Loughran got back to his feet only by instinct. His eyes were glazed and he could not raise his hands in more than a gesture of self-defense. Hamas leaped on the veteran. As Loughran receled back into the ropes, about to go down again, Referee Gunboat Smith, a battle-scarred veteran himself, interfered and stopped the fight.

Get a Manager If You Must, But by All Means Get a WINNING Ball Club.

All this balderdash about who will go out and locate the foul lines for the umpires before each Cracker game this season, isn't so important.

What is important is that the 15 owners get their heads together and devise some method of getting a winning ball club for the manager.

Cracker owners surely haven't forgot the dismal scenes of last fall when the season was dragging itself to a miserable finish. The few in the stands came to jeer and remained to do just that. The cry of the wild raspberry resounded from morning until night.

This is no time to experiment. The Cracker club of 1932 must be a winner. There can be no experimenting with young players. The team must win. That is a rather difficult experi-

As to the manager—there isn't any argument right now.' Word from one of the boys Friday was that David Irenus (Red) Barron had been definitely decided upon by the faction which does the deciding for the board of directors.

But, said the man who knows, there is a chance that their minds may be changed by the time of the meeting next week. But, as things stand now, Barron is "it."

While the writer considers Johnny Dobbs one of the better minor league managers, and believes it an unwise business move to pay a good man $9,000 to quit, there is certainly no objection to giving Red Barron a try. The original Red is one of the men for whom one can cheer. If they make him the manager this department will be right in there pitching for him.

Perhaps Gunboat felt a twinge himself, as did most of those on their feet yelling at the ringside. At any tate he saved Loughran at least the ignominy of hearing the count of "ten." Loughran was "out" on his feet and feebly acknowledged the extended glove of Hamas.

Hamas has had barely two dozen fights as a professional. He was champion as a college boxer, besides engaging in football, track and lacrosse.

Loughran weighted to make this department will be right in there pitching for him.

The important thing isn't the manager, however. This year the directors can't afford to miss. It's unfortunate but they brought it on themselves by failing to get players who could win in the past two years. The manager is secondary. Those figures in the "won" column come first.

THE PRESENT PLAN.

That contract of Johnny Dobbs', with its salary, is being offered here and there, said the man, with the hope that a major league club will take it and use Dobbs as a scout or contract of Johns Dobbs as a count or contract of Johns Dobbs a

That contract of Johnny Dobbs', with its salary, is being of-fered here and there, said the man, with the hope that a major league club will take it and use Dobbs as a scout or coach and pay part of the salary.

Dobbs can refuse this if he chooses. His contract calls for him to manage the Cracker ball club. He can stand upon his bond.

CHICAGO STADIUM, CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—(UP)—King Levinsky, Chicago's clowning heavyweight, continued his ascent in the fistic ranks tonight by winning a 10-round decision from Paulino Uzcudun, Basque wood-chopper.

One thing is certain. Atlanta should speed up her baseball business and get it settled. The picture of the south's largest and finest city and one of the nation's great sport centers being made ridiculous isn't so pleasant to contemplate.

COMMODORES HERE TONIGHT.

Josh Cody will herd his basketball team into the city this morning in preparation for the game with the Georgia Tech at the auditorium.

It will be Josh's first appearance here with the Commodores since he won the conference basketball title with them in 1927. He is a right smart basketball man, is Josh Cody.

With the Commodores this year is Julian Foster, the big boy from Madison. The Cody clan is going along, and going along at a great pace. They may get tripped. Roy Mundorff's Levinsky scaled 195, 1-2, the most Tech five is apparently better than the one of last season. The entertainment tonight should be rather superlative.

TULANE-TROJAN PICTURES.

One may beat a sincere drum for the pictures at the Tenth Street theater—the pictures of the Tulane-Southern California Marist. 34 to 19 game which go on Monday.

This is not the ordinary news reel picture. It is a complete photographic reproduction of the game with the more intricate plays in slow motion. The film offers a clear and fast-moving picture of the game, remarkable in the clarity of detail.

This is the second experiment in this line. The first was the reproduction of the Southern California-Notre Dame game. It packed in the crowds at a large theater in Los Angeles.

The run made by Wop Glover to put the Green Wave in position for the first Tulane touchdown, is shown at ordinary speed and in slow motion. It is one of the most remarkable runs ever seen. It explains, or rather doesn't, how those runs happen. Glover was missed by inches a dozen times when he seemed to be hopelessly caught.

By all means, see the pictures. The management of the Centh Street theater is to be congratulated on this feature.

VANDY IS FOE AT AUDITORIUM

Spectacular Scoring Battle Between Foster and Perkins Seen.

By Jack Troy.

Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt, potentially two of the leading teams in the Southern conference this season, will meet at the city auditorium at 8:15 o'clock tonight.

Roy Mundorff's Jackets are appearing before the home fans for the first time this season. In three games played out of town, they have won two and lost one.

There will be a preliminary game at 7 o'clock between the Tech freshmen and Tech High. Both teams have shown promise of much strength and this game will serve as an appetizer for the main attraction.

SCORING BATTLE.

and this game will serve as an appetizer for the main attraction.

SCORING BATTLE.

A scoring battle between Perkins, Tech's stellar center, and Foster, Vandy star forward, is in prospect in the final contest.

Against Auburn, Tech, led by Perkins, leading scorer in the conference last season, equaled the Tigers in field goals but lost a 25-to-23 decision when they failed to capitalize on the free shots. They defeated Florida, 41 to 32, in the only other conference game, and also downed Fort Benning's Soldiers.

Tonight's game gives promise of being one of the best of the home season, for Vanderbilt, coached by your old friend, Josh Cody, has shown much promise, and Tech has been finproving in every game.

On a Christmas trip into the midwest the Commodores won two games and lost one. Against Auburn, however, Cody's men were defeated by a slightly larger margin than was Tech.

Fans who like their basketball fast, rivalry keen and scoring spectacular will find the realization of their desires in the Tech-Vandy battle.

Cody's Commodores include Julian Foster, Madison (Ga.) boy, who played end on the football team. Foster is a splendid forward. He scored nine points in the Auburn game. Other stellar hardwood performers are Big Bill Schwartz, forward; Marsh, center; Henderson, Graham and Kerwan, guards.

Foster, one of half a dozen six-footers on the squad, is the high scorer of the Commodores will present a taller team than Tech. And in Foster the date than Tech. And in Foster the date to guard under the basket, one whom the close-guarding teams of the middle west could hardly slow up.

So there will be no opportunity for either team to seek revenge in a return game this year. That is only one of the circumstances that will make the contest a heated affair from start to finish.

It will be the first time the Bulldogs have performed on their home court since the Christmas holidays. Lapchick has a bad knee which has kept him out of the last few games. Captain Yernon (Catfish) Smith and his fellow Bulodgs will go into action tomorrow night with the forlorn hope of beating the Celtics. The Bulldogs, one of the Southern conference's veteran teams, will be in that basketball game every minute. The Georgia lineup will find Pap Terrell and Tommy Moran, Georgia's small but fast veterans, at forward; William (Wild Bill) Strickland at center, and Captain (Catfish) Smith and Leroy Young, at the guard positions. ATLANTA SPOT COTTON. Atlanta spot cotton closed steady, 5 points up, at 6.50. Receipts, 400; shipments, 7; stocks, 149,946. NEW YORK, Jan. 15 .- A further advance in cotton at the opening today met increased offerings, which were attributed largely to realizing and local selling. March contracts after selling up to 6.74 at the start, reached to 6.65, or about 9 points from the best, but stiff-ened in the late trading on renewed covering and closed at 6.68. The general market closed steady, net un-changed to 3 points higher.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 6 points on a further demand from the trade, steady Liverpool cables and reports of continued light offerings from the south. Buying seemed to taper off after the initial demand had been supplied and the market met moderate selling around 7.07 for July contracts.

Trade buying orders were evidently in the market for execution around 7 cents for July, however, and after selling off to 6.98 for that position during the middle of the day, prices turned steadier.

May contracts which had sold off to 6.81 on the decline, or about 2 points net lower, closed at 6.86, while July raflied from 6.98 to 7.03 at the Liverpool cables reported Bombay liquidation in that market but said Manchester was more cheerful with an improved demand for cotton cloths from China. Exports today 30,255, making 4,420,256 so far this season. Porth receipts, 54,983. United States port stocks, 4,878,237.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—(P)—

The cotton market was comparatively quiet today and prices fluctuated within a moderate range. After advancing 5 to 7 points in the early trading prices declined 9 points in sympathy with rather easier stocks and on hedge selling, but recovered to within 3 points of the highs in the late afternoon owing to a rally in stocks. The close was steady, showing net gains for the day of 1 to 4 points. IN NEW ORLEANS SPOTS

The market opened rather steady, although cables came in 2 to 5 penny points worse than due, but sterling was firmer. Private cables stated that Romber limited on the im-provement in sterling. Manchester ca-bled that there was a more cheerful tone in the cloth market and an im-proved business with China.

TENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The market opened several points above yesterday's close and lato new high ground for this movement on active months under continued buying by trade interests including price-fixing by domestic and far-eastern spinners and litting of outstanding hedges by spot houses. There was also a fair demand from Liverpool and the continent. The advance, however, attracted some increase in hedge selling by professional interests and New Orleans, under which prices receded 7 to 9 points from early highs. There was an much demiand, however, on sethack that the market recovered a portion of this loss with final prices averaging slightly above the previous close. We continue to prefer the constructive side, especially on recessions. STOCK Letters.

YENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Today's market recorded an impressive response to a test of its technical strength when overnight news reported a temporary hitch is the Chicago railroad wage conference. Selling which sought to capitalise this incident only served to demonstrate the list's absorptive capacity. Stocks revealed prompt recuperative power after reactions reached normal technical limits.

COURTS & CO.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The market was less active today and the fluctuations again relatively narrow. Stocks seemed to be well taken on a reaction in the early part of the day, and the list generally firmed up in the alternoon.

Special strength was shown by the rails and by specialties such as J. I. Case, United Aircraft, Westinghouse and the local tractions.

The immediate prospect seems to call for a great deal of irregularity and we think that individual stocks are likely to go against the general trend, with some advancing and others declining, while the average hold in a trading range.

LIVINGSTON & CO.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Today's market has evidenced some further indications of broadening and has maintained a very steady tone throughout on sctive foreign and trade buying estimated at around 15,000 bales. The contracts were supplied by New Orleans and southern selling combined with realising by recent buyers. A feeling that there are further good buying orders beneath the market discourages aggressive selling and there is no pressure of importance. A better feeling prevails and the trend depends largely on the action of the securities market.

After a general break into new high ground it is not usual for the market to suddenly reverse its trend and we consider it probable that it will at least maintain a trading range for a time around these levels and may possibly advance further.

FENNER, BEANE & UNGERLEIDER.
CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—We had the same drifting characteriess market today as we have experienced for the past week with sufficient support developing just above bids to turn the wheat market upward and run into the offers.

Early weakness was due to a further decline in Liverpool which, however, was mostly offset by an advance in sterling exchange, a moderate reaction in the stock market, and very henvy shipments from Australia and Argentina. A rally was brought about by an upturn in stocks. There was a scattered export business out of Vancouver, Germany and France being included among the buyers and it was also reported south hard winters had been sold substantially below a replacement basis. Foreign advices indicate increasing confidence in ultimately higher prices, aithough naturally the distress selling of Argentina and Australia will be taken advantage of

NEW YORK; Jan. 15.—Most foreign exchanges were strong against the dollar today. Sterling again led the rise, getting to the highest point since last November. Cables closed 2 cents higher at $3.4§.

BY JOHN P. BOUGHAN. CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—(49)—Brisk upturns of grain prices today went hand in hand with a fresh advance of hand in hand with a fresh advance of the New York stock market.

Quick recovery shown by wheat values contrasted strikingly with bear-ish foreign developments, and in par-ticular with an unexpected big in-crease of shipments of wheat from southern hemisphere countries.

Wheat closed firm at the day's top, 1-4 to 5-8 above yesterday's finish, corh and oats each 1-8 to 3-8 up, and pro-visions unchanged to 5 cents off.

A feature of late rallies in wheat

A feature of late rallies in wheat values was the fact that much of the buying was on executions of standing orders that soon swept the pit clear of any floating supply.

Corn and oats, although weak early came back fast when wheat snapp upward.

Banking interests close to the company were again reported as advising the purchase of shares. A sharp run up in J. I. Case was accomplished at the expense of a large short interest. United Aircraft spurted upward in the late dealings. American Telephone & Telegraph was in supply and failed to show any response to rumors that the company poposed declaring a full year's dividend at the next meeting. This story was afloat six months ago so that very little credence was given to it. Local traction shares were higher under leadership of Brooklyn Manhatan Transit. International Combustion preferred had a quick run up of 12 points at one time on reports that the company had sold the boiler division of its business to the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing. The general bond market was inclined to show easiness. Profit-taking appeared in fair volume in the second-grade issues, which have had a sharp advance in the last fortnight. United States government bonds were a shade lower. # SHARES ON CURB

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER.

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—(P)—Interest in the curb market slackened perceptibly today, although prices improved moderately during the last hour, of trading.

Losses generally were confined to fractions.

There was considerable activity in the utilities list although prices kept within a narrow range. Electric Bond & Share rose 3-4 of a point net to 13 1-4, a new high for the railly.

Duliness prevailed in the oil section, most of the Standards easing fractionally. The specialty group sold lower after the opening but developed some rallying power later.

There was moderate activity in Ford of Canada A., Ford Motor, Ltd., Woolworth and Cord. Aluminum raised its price 1-1-2 points.

Total sales were 240,000 shares against 300,000 yesterday.

TARZAN THE TERRIBLE No 102

During a lull in the battle, a voice suddenly arose among the followers of Ja-don, crying out: "Show us the Dor-ul-Otho! We do not believe that he is your prisoner." "Wait," shouted down the high priest, "if I do not produce him before the sun has moved his own width, I swear that the gates of the palace shall be opened to you and my war-riors will lay down their arms." So saying, Lu-don turned to one of his priests and issued brief in-AUTOMOTIVE BUSINESS SERVICE

The din of battle had arisen again as Ja-don urged his forces to renewed effort. But Ta-den had not arrived with the promised help, and the forces of the old chieftain were revealing their increasing demoralization by their lessened effort. And then it was that the priests carried Tarzan-jad-guru to the roof of the palace and exhibited him in the sight of the warriors of both factions. "Here is the false Dor-ul-Otho!" screamed Lu-don, as the bound and helpless prisoner was held upright for all to see.

shall die upon the altar he has profaned. Take him from my sight and when the sun stands at zenith, the faithful congregated in the temple shall witness the wrath of Jad-ben-Otho!" Those who brought Tarzan now took him away. Again the high priest demanded: "Come! Throw down your arms. Those who do as I bid shall be forgiven." The warriors of Ja-don moved uneasily, casting looks of appeal at their leader.

Ja-don sprang forward among his men. "Let the cowards and knaves throw down their arms and enter the palace," he cried, "but never will Ja-don and the warriors of Ja-lur touch their foreheads to the feet of Lu-don. Make your decision now," he cried to his followers. A few deserted, but staunch and true around him stood the majority of his men. When the last weakling had left the ranks, Ja-don voiced the savage cry with which he led his followers to the attack and once again the battle raged about the palace gate.

New Stage, Screen Programs At Atlanta Theaters Today

EHERS AND DUNN STAR

IN FEATURE AT THE FOX
Sally Eilers and James Dunn, that couple of young actors who made a screen history in "Bad Girl," are again on the screen at the Fox theater, this time in "Over the Hill," which is the feature of the new program opening today. Winning almost equal honors in the production is Mae Marsh, now playing the role of the old mother, her first appearance after twelve years of retirement since her great work in "Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and other silent screen classics.

The story of "Over the Hill," familiar to everyone, is filled with heart throbs. It tells of the struggles of a boy and a young man to provide for his mother and how a heartless brother appropriates for himself the money sent to take care of the mother in her old age.

It necks a tramendous nunch re-Brunet and pretty, Mrs. H. E. Da-vis and her latest husband were ar-rested on complaint sworn out by husband No. 3, Gary Widener, New Smyrna shrimp fisherman, who charges Mrs. Davis did not go through husband No. 3, Gary Widener, New Smyrna shrimp fisherman, who charges Mrs. Davis did not go through with the formality of obtaining a divorce from him, and that Davis married her knowing she was the wife of another man.

But Mrs. Davis didn't seem worried, despite that the offense with which she is charged is serious and might mean a fine of $500 and five years' imprisonment.

She said she formerly lived at Atlanta and that her mother now lives at Flagler Beach. At the age of 14, she said, she was married to Roy Braddock, 24, in Atlanta, Ga. He deserted her two years later, she said. She gave her maiden name as Joyce Elizabeth Morgan.

les a $2,000 irony, but an irony just the same, that MacDonald Smith can give all his younger and equally famous competitors lessons from time to time, as he did recently in the Los Angeles open, which he won for the third time in seven years, and yet the Carnoustie Scot cannot pluck the pearl of the national open of either the United States or Britain.

to remedy the maladjustment of the world's gold supply was urged by the British government, today in the ingritish government today in the ingress of restoring economic stability. The British policy was emphasized in a note to the League of Nations relative to the report of the League's economic experts on creation of a European economic union.

The British note expressed strong hope that, despite various difficulties, "an endeavor will be made to conclude agreements regarding European economic co-operation" such as former French Foreign Minister Aristide Briand proposed in his European who watched Bobby play his tortured way through that set of par 3 holes, relation with the settlement of international financial questions now under consideration, since in the present circumstances, the financial is the financial is the financial is the financial is to the financial is the fina

The curious thing about this Los Angeles open, which Smith has again put to his credit, is that with one exception it has been the consolation tourney for outstanding golfers beaten by the proverbial whisker in national open finishes.

The first winner at Los Angeles was Harry Cooper, who was caught by Tommy Armour at the 73d hole at Oakmont in 1927, and beaten in the playoff. The next winner was Bobby Cruickshank, who fought and lost a playoff battle with Bobby Jones at Inwood in 1923, giving the overdue Atlanta wizard his first major crown.

Then came Smith's two triumphs, in the same manner recalling the 1910 major crown.

Then came Smith's two triumphs, in the same manner recalling the 1910 national open at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, in which Mac lost to his brother. Alex, in a three-sided play-off with Johnny McDermott. Denny Shute, the black-thatched wispy Ohioan, whose tragedy featured the 1929 national open at Winged Foot, succeeded Smith as Los Angeles winner, carrying forward the torch of the tradition, and then last year the first break came when the winner was Ed Dudley. Although one of the leading campaigners, Dudley has never made a defiant bid for the open. He broke the Los Angeles charm.

never made a defiant bid for the open He broke the Los Angeles charm.

Of course there are at least two more first-class scorers who have been step-children of fate in the mational who have also lagged at Los Angeles. Neither Leo Diegel, who had his great chance at Inverness in 1920, nor George Von Elm, who was a likely winner at Olympia Fields in 1928 and the most minute margined loser of all time at Inverness last sammer, have come through at Los Angeles.

The motion picture industry has provided the public with many, many stories containing a good moral for a son or a daughter but there have been very few which gave a real lesson for mother or for father.

Such is provided in "Nice Women," which opened Friday at the Qapitol theater, co-starring two quite personable young women, Sidney Fox and Frances Dee.

It's another one of those stories which has to do with an ambitious mother's desires for her daughter's successful marriage. The father, one have come through at Los Angeles.

Diegel restored some of his prestige ond, four strokes behind Smith. Eccentric Leo hasn't been riding very high the last couple of years, not since her climbed onto the P. G. A. throne, but Thursday at Agua Caliente he went out in 35, 1 under par, and came back with a 33, for a 68, making a new course record.

The Jinx Crown.

And there's a thought, too—the P. G. A. title has frequently been a jinx to the country's best pro golfers. Both Gene Sarazen and Walter Hagen made great and colorful P. G. A. champions, but they were never able to win the national open after going to the matpeak in the pro ranks.

The same thing could be said of Tommy Armour, who won the P. G. A. in 1930 and then had a dolorous time with the new ball at Inverness. But both he and Hagen proved that winning the P. G. A. didn't prevent a soul from capturing open honors on the other side of the water.

Diegel reached his zenith in his moon for the couple, only to discover himself in love with Daughter No. 2. This makes everybody happy, father, mother, sister, brother, the scenario writer and the operator way up in the booth.

So if an ambitious mother desires daughter to marry "well" she'd do well to have more than one daughter, for the more shots ma has at the millionaire the better her chances of hitting the target.
